Japan Pushing the Claims of Her Rejected Emigrants.

Distinguished Japanese Citizens, Backed Up by the Presence of a War Ship, to Reinforce Minister Shimamura's Demands.

"Honolulu, May 4. The Japanese cruiser Naniwa should soon arrive here, having left Yokohama on April 20. Four days before the steamer China sailed. She brings Consul Akiyama, of the Japanese foreign office, two Japanese newspaper correspondents and three of the immigrants lately refused a landing here who come now to serve as witnesses in the investigation which is to be held.

The Naniwa also brings formal instructions to Minister Shimamura from his government, their gist being that he shall charge Hawaii with having violated the existing treaty. In February, in refusing a landing to Japanese immigrants, protesting them from employing counsel and declining to entertain the proposition for a suit at law to determine the rights of the case.

By Japanese mail comes news that the emigration company claims $50,000 for each of three emigrants turned back, while the steamship Shin Nihon claims $200,000 per day damages for time lost through the Hawaiian government's action. It is also stated that Count Okuma, Japanese minister of foreign affairs, will insist on revision of the existing immigration regulations.

Col. H. C. Spaulding has withdrawn from his contract with the Hawaiian government for the construction of a cable from California to the Hawaiian Islands, having failed to secure the expected assistance from the United States.

GREECE WANTS PEACE. OTHERWISE UNNOTICED.

A Written Application Addressed to the Powers.

TURKEY Declines to Consent to an Armistice. The Greek Government, however, has returned to Constantinople.

ATHENS, May 10.—Your correspondent learns on the very best authority that Greece has made a written application to the powers, through their representatives at Athens, with a view of obtaining mediation. All the representatives have promised in their replies to use their best offices, except the German minister, who has merely acknowledged the receipt of the note.

The note is inclined to support the powers, with a view to the facilitation of negotiations, but it declines to consent to an armistice, on the ground that this would enable Greece to reorganize her forces.

As a matter of fact, Turkey continues to send troops from Salonica home town, and it is probable that the Greek army has returned to Constantinople from Salonica. In view of both facts, it may be assumed that nothing serious is expected, but the continuance of a state of war is regarded as the very best means of hastening the efforts of diplomacy. Without doubt, the Ottoman empire might annex Thessaly and restore the old frontier of 1878, but the Sultan is not inclined to risk such a step. On the contrary, he opposes it uncompromisingly, and will not yield to the pressure of the war party at Constantinople. He will be satisfied with a reasonable indemnity and a slight modification of the eastern Thessalian frontier, such a one as would give Turkey several strategic positions in the vicinity of Nezeros.

A dispatch from Lani, dated yesterday, says that Greek Prince Constantine is still at Domokos, and the Gen. Siniolenski is at Almyros. Nicolotti Garibaldi and the Italian volunteers have arrived at Almyros.

The dispatch says that the exodus of inhabitants from Lani and the surrounding country continues. Greek torpedo boats still patrol the gulf of Volo. It is probable that more fighting will occur at Domokos.

The telegraph is believed to be from the Turkish capital, from that point says that the Turks are half way between Pharsalos and Domokos and are believed to be planning an attack upon the latter. The Turks do not molest the inhabitants of the villages they have occupied, but they have burned houses and plundered several churches at Pharsalos.

In the course of an interview, Col. Vassos said:

"The conflict between Greece and Turkey is now an actual fact, and nothing is lacking but the consent of Europe. The foreign admirals recently asked us to advance their troops in Greece beyond the zone previously occupied. The powers may do what they like. The union of Greece and Turkey is inevitable and a necessity."

It is reported in official circles that Queen Olga sent a telegram to the czar soliciting the mediation of Russia.

The Occupation of Volo by the Turks.

VOLA, May 10.—Describing the entry of the Turkish troops the correspondent says:

"The Turkish army sent a flag of truce with a proclamation that he would protect all inhabitants remaining in the town. A touching scene ensued. In the principal street an immense crowd gathered, with anxious, unexpressed faces, looking eagerly to the reading of the proclamation which was to decide their fate. When the reading was finished a murmur of intense relief was heard throughout the dense throng quickly followed by a frantic shout of 'Long live the Sultan!'"

But there still remained cause for the most serious anxiety, for the question was then whether the Greek, admiral, whose ships were lying off the town and in plain sight would accept the Turkish terms. A single gunshot from the fleet would have compelled the Turks to treat Volo as hostile. Three newspaper men, myself among them, were appointed a deputation to go on board the flagship, and get the admiral's reply. We bore a white flag. At the quay, however, we met the captain of the foreign war ships with a written communication from the admiral saying that he intended to remain in front of the town and assured that it would be occupied quietly. To this the Turkish commander replied that only one battalion would enter, the main army going into camp outside, and he again requested that the Greek fleet would not otherwise fire, could not be responsible for what might occur.

CREMATED AT SEA.

Sixteen Persons Lose Their Lives on a Burning Vessel.

Shut Up in the Hold of a Ship, Like Rat in a Trap, They Perished Before Aid Could Reach Them—The Vessel Returns to Port.

NEW YORK, May 10.—The Mallory line steamer Leona, which left New York on Saturday, bound for Galveston took fire at sea, put back and arrived in port last night with 16 corpses on board. The dead were 15 steerage passengers and three members of the crew, who succumbed to a terrible fire which occurred off the Delaware capes at an early hour yesterday morning. The full horror of the story can hardly be told as yet. Those who are dead were pined up below decks, and although frantic efforts were made by the officers of the vessel to save them, the fire had gained such terrible headway before the danger was discovered that all escape was cut off. The steamer carried in her cargo many bales of cotton. It is not certain how the fire originated, but when it was discovered it burst forth with such fury that it was impossible to reach the steamer. Even the smoke and flames had not reached them. The sailors passengers were first aroused and in such a manner as to occasion little alarm. When it was discovered that the fire had cut off the steamer the captain and his men poured great quantities of water down the ventilator and most frantic efforts were made for the escape of those penned up. In this way eight of the steerage passengers were all transferred to the City of Augusta in safety and the work of fighting the fire was continued. About one o'clock in the morning the flames were under control and the steamer out of danger. The passengers were sent back to the Leona and the City of Augusta, continued on her way to Savannah. The Leona put about and returned to port under her own steam.

STILL FIGHTING THE FLOOD.

No Cessation of Work on the Louisiana Levees.

NEW ORLEANS, May 8.—The presidential interference of good weather has enabled the strengthening of the line, until now there is little fear of disaster. However, the levee boards are all at work with a will, and the Davis, Flinn, Peltier, Bonnett, Cade, McNeil and other important levees deemed weak are being placed in condition to withstand a siege. The river has at last broken away from the 19.5 mark, but is only one-tenth above it. This means that the time to halt has not yet come, and there will be no cessation of labor.

Earlington Happenings.

(News Notes - Personal Paragraphs and Other Things at Home Worth)

of Special Mention

The Railroad picnic is scheduled to take place at Loch Mary on Saturday.

Mr. R. N. Clark and family have gone to Kansas City, Mo., where they will make a visit of some weeks to relatives.

Not all the "saddle horses" are well fitted for pleasure riding and happy is she or he who gets onto the proper gait on.

The Western Pioneers' Association meets at Madisonville next Tuesday, May 18th, as has been announced before in these columns.

The Bachelor Maids held a pleasant meeting with Miss Jennie McGary Saturday afternoon, although several of the members were absent.

Quite a number of our young people have been practicing horseback riding several evenings of late. There is some talk of organizing a riding club in the near future.

The Earlington base ball team will play the Madisonville team at the latter place this afternoon. The Madisonville club organizes to-day and have brought Bowers, catcher, from Pittsburgh, Tenn.

Mrs. J. W. Dunning, who had been a sufferer for many months with consumption, died at her home in Barnesley, last Wednesday, and was buried at the Earlington cemetery Thursday.

Jno. M. Victory & Co., whose grocery occupied temporarily a store building on Main Street, after the fire have moved back into the Gough building, their old stand, which has been put in good shape.

Mr. Isaac Davis had his residence on Main Street treated to a new coat of paint at the hands of that veteran of the brush, Charles McFadden, last week, which has added greatly to the local scenery of that section.

Mr. Eli Barnes, who has been a citizen of our city for sometime past, left for the New country last Monday. As he was in the care of experienced teamsters there seems no room to doubt that Eli will "get there," as heretofore.

The lively men are not unhappy that Earlington youths and maidens are growing a great fondness for horseback riding. Let this true Kentucky sport be encouraged. A good horse well gaited and caparisoned is a thing of delight.

Mr. Ed Phillips left yesterday morning for Bowling Green, after a short visit to his parents here. He has charge of the West Baden coal yard at that place. Ed is a bright young man, and his friends here wish him abundant success.

Ben T. Robinson was in Tuxedo office Monday and talked political matters a little. Ben was in Frankfort at the election of Deboe, and was accorded the special privilege of a seat among the members on the floor of the House. He expresses himself as confident of having won the nomination for State Senator.

TO THE CIRCUS.

Barnum & Bailey Excursion to be Run on all Railroads.

The great Barnum & Bailey Circus is to exhibit in Hopkinsville, May 26, and for the notable occasion all railroads will make a special low round ticket, so all those who desire to witness the "Greatest Show on Earth" can do so at a small expense. The Barnum & Bailey Circus this year, while always the best and highest in the past, is now conceded to be the most incomparable exhibition in the entire world. Nothing has ever, or will ever approach it, for the genuine merit of its circus performance, the size and complete ness of its menagerie, and the wonderful display of its gorgeous equipment. The shows require sixty big railroad cars for its transportation, employs 700 people and possesses over 400 horses and half a hundred cages of rare animals. Its daily expenses are over $5,000, and it annually attracts and entertains several million of patrons. It is the big show of the universe and one of the largest enterprises in the entire world. It will be a great day for this vicinity, and doubtless a large crowd will attend the performance from this place.

Decoration Day.

The Department of Kentucky G. A. R. has issued an order in conformity with State law, proclaiming Monday, May 31, as the day on which to celebrate Memorial or Decoration Day. The law is that when a holiday falls on Sunday, the succeeding day is the one to be observed. Attention is called to the fact that it is the duty of each Post to attend in a body Divine services in some church on the Sunday preceding Memorial Day, (which will in this case be Sunday, May 30th).

Wheels or Horses?

Whether is popular, and a number of new devotees to this great sport are promised with the advent of settled spring weather. But Earlington's beaux and belles, with the escort of proper and appreciative chaperones have taken to the noble old pleasure of horseback riding and promise to eclipse all record of wheeling devotees in this section. Almost daily in the pleasant spring evenings they come out in numbers like troops of cavalry, and charge the town or the country or a neighboring town as their pleasure dictates. It is good to hear the merry clatter of many hoofs bent on such a mission of health and pleasure, and to listen to chatter of merry voices up and down the streets, and off to the highway.

Open Air Concert.

The Earlington Cornet Band will give an open air concert in the band stand Saturday night at 7 o'clock. The following is the program: Grand March—Paul de Ville. Florio Schottische. Inspiration Quadrille. Darr Waltz—Paul de Ville. Gallop, Prince Inspired—Cootie. Nearer my God to Thee. Our band deserves the approbation and patronage of the community. Let them have a good hearing. The boys are working hard.

Spring Races.

The Union County Fair Company will hold a one day race meeting on June 12. A number of racers are already quartered at the track. Below is the program of the day's racing, entries in each of which are rapidly being filled.

1st Race—Running 1/4 mile dash for 2 years olds.

2d Race—Running, Stake Race 1/4 mile heats.

3d Race—Open race for trotters and pacers 5/16 mile heats, 3 in 5.

4th Race—County race for buggy horses, 1/4 mile heats.

Building a Railroad.

Col. Seymour is an old railroad man, and has helped to contract many railroads. He is regarded as a splendid surveyor and engineer. He will be absent most of the summer.

Deafness Cannot be Cured

by local applications, as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure deafness, and that is by constitutional remedies. Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian Tube. When this tube gets inflamed you have a running sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed deafness is the result, and unless the inflammation can be taken out and this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever; nine cases out of ten are caused by catarrh, which is nothing but an inflamed condition of the mucous surfaces.

We will give One Hundred Dollars for any case of Deafness (caused by catarrh) that cannot be cured by Hall's Catarrh Cure. Send for circulars, free.

REWARD OF $100

Offered by the City for Arrest and Conviction of Burglars.

ROBERT JOHN M. VICTORY & CO.

Shot at Four Times in the Dark by Night

Watchman, Cal Morgan.

Wednesday morning about 1 o'clock four shots were fired from the revolver of night watchman Cal Morgan at a fleeing burglar who, possibly with an accomplice, had robbed the store of Jno. M. Victory & Co. on Railroad and Clark Street.

Cal was making his usual rounds in his usual quiet manner and had just reached the corner when he heard inside the store a sound about like a rat gnawing. He stopped and listened, stepping back behind the wall. Presently he heard more noise and the foot-steps of a man who approached the front door and tried the latch.

Cal then stepped out thinking it was one of the clerks. As he stepped from behind the corner he came into full view in the strong light of the electric street lamp.

The burglar saw him and ran for the back door. Officer Morgan also went to the rear but the burglar had the start, and before Morgan got more than half way of the building the fellow struck his head around the corner and peeped to see where safety was. He then dodged and ran the other way on the dark side of the house. Morgan fired two rapid shots through the dark passway then ran front to catch a shot as he should come into the light again. As the officer reached the front of the store the burglar ran across the street and around the depot, then down by Robinson's store and disappeared.

Morgan shot twice more as the fugitive ran across Railroad Street, but it is presumed that none of the shots took effect. Diligent search failed to discover anything except that the fellow had taken refuge in an outhouse on Geo. Hooser's place on Railroad Street where he had bled profusely.

The entrance was made through the rear second story window to which the burglar climbed with the aid of a goods box and a broad plank. In breaking out the window glass he cut his right hand or wrist and blood was smeared profusely where he felt his way to the staircase and down stairs and leaning with his bloody hand against the side of the stairway and the telephone to make sure the coast was clear. Two theories are advanced. One that there were two burglars and that the wounded man watched while the other robbed, and the other that the wounded hand was bound up before the robbery began. Officer Morgan who was on the scene of action thinks there was only one man. Others who were attracted by the shots saw the man who ran towards Hooser's, but no other, and there was only one avenue of escape.

A reward of one hundred dollars was promptly offered by the city for the arrest and conviction of the party or parties who committed the robbery, of which amount Mr. Victory will pay a part.

Mr. James Jones, of the drug firm of Jones & Son, Cowden, Ill., in speaking of Dr. King's New Discovery, says that last winter his wife was attacked with La Grippe, and her case grew so serious that physicians at Cowden and Paris could do nothing for her. It seemed to develop into Hasty Consumption. Having Dr. King's New Discovery in store and selling lots of it he took a bottle home, and to the surprise of all she began to get better from first dose, and half dozen dollar bottles cured her sound and well. Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, Coughs and Colds is guaranteed to do this good work. Try it. Trial bottles free at St. Bernard Drug Store.

Charge of Infanticide.

According to evidence that is considered unimpeachable a child was born Saturday night or Sunday morning to Mrs. Alice Swinney of St. Charles, whose husband has been dead for several years. The child could not be found. The authorities discovered that Thomas Whitford was at the woman's house Saturday night. Whitford has been attentive to Mrs. Swinney for two or three years, and he was arrested charged with complicity in making away with the child and lodged in jail at Madisonville. The grand jury began the examination of witnesses in the case yesterday.

The unfortunate occurrence has cast a cloud of gloom and sadness over the town, but the misguided woman's relatives have the deepest sympathy of the people in the entire community.

A prominent western newspaper recommends fast relief as an excellent remedy for whooping cough.

It is not to be compared with Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. This preparation will stay the violent fits of coughing and make them less frequent and less severe. KENTUCKY CROPS.

Condition of Various Crops Throughout the State.

LIVE STOCK AND FRUIT PROSPECTS.

How to Obtain the Remedy for Chinch Bugs and San Jose Scale.

BUREAU OF AGRICULTURE, FRANKFORD, KY.

Reports from 139 correspondents representing 91 counties to our Commissioner of Agriculture indicate the following crop conditions to May 15.

Wheat on an average is in excellent condition, the lowest conditions existing in Western Kentucky. The oat crop showed quite unfavorably but the close of April barely found the crop sown and the condition is therefore not very apparent. To insure even a fair crop the rainfall must be above the normal until maturity of the crop.

Probably a smaller per cent. of the corn crop was planted prior to May 15 than ever before. The recent favorable weather has been made use of to the fullest extent by the farmers. The acreage for 1897 is estimated at 85 per cent. of the acreage of 1896. About 25 per cent. of the 1896 crop is still in farmer's hands. Corn is scarce and the price has materially advanced.

A short acreage of tobacco is indicated and the condition of plant beds is only fair but it is likely that the farmers will make their old mistake and, stimulated by the anticipated shortage, plant at least an average crop.

The bonafide rainfall has been very favorable to clover and other grass seed sown this spring and the result is the most perfect stand obtained in years.

The fruit is generally reported in fine condition with the exception of peaches and reports are very conflicting in regard to this fruit.

Live Stock.

The condition of live stock remains generally good. Cattle and sheep are in excellent demand at full prices. Hogs are plentiful, but withstanding the general prevalence of Cholera, which seems to have come to stay in many localities.

It is gratifying to note an improved demand for horses after a long season of depression. Good horses are now in demand and selling at a price, which, while still low, is far above the ruling price for several years.

Chinch Bug and San Jose Scale.

In addition to the presence of Chinch Bug, already noted in the counties of Livingston and Mason, we know from personal observation that the bug exists in considerable numbers in the counties of Marion and Washington, and there is reason to believe that all portions of the State infested last year contain the pest. Farmers are urged to watch closely and as soon as the advent of the bug is noted application should be made to the Director of the Experimental Station at Lexington for a supply of fungus for diseasing it.

It is greatly to be deplored that the San Jose Scale has made its appearance in the State, its presence having, beyond doubt, been discovered in the county of Warren. The bill intended to eradicate it has passed the Lower House of the General Assembly and will no doubt become a law in a few days. Nurserymen and fruit growers should keep a sharp lookout for any unusual appearance of their trees and when its presence is suspected the fact should be at once reported to Prof. H. Garman, of Lexington, Ky., who, under the provisions of the bill, is made State Entomologist and charged with the duty of taking the necessary steps to check its ravages.

Prof. Garman has prepared an interesting bulletin on the Scale, which may be had free of charge on application to him.

THE SUNDAY SCHOOL

SECOND QUARTER, IN-
LESSON VII. SUNDAY, MAY 16.

THE LESSON, Acts xiv, 11-22—Memorize, 21, 22—Golden Text, Acts xiv, 17—Commentary by the Rev. D. M.
Stearns.

The power of God was so manifest in his word through the apostles at Antioch that the next Sabbath almost the whole city came together to hear the word of God (Acts xiv, 11). This filled the Jews with much envy that they persecuted and blasphemed and raised such persecution against Paul and Barnabas that they were expelled from the city; not, however, before many believed and were baptized and encouraged to continue in the grace of God.
From Antioch they went to Iconium, and to speak to a multitude both of Jews and Greeks believed. But they were persecuted by the Jews and were driven thence, and came to Lystra and Derbe and preached the gospel. During the preaching a man came from the city whom the Jews had never well perfectly healed by the Lord through Paul, and here our lesson begins.

11. "The gods are come down to us in the likeness of men." These were the words of the people when they saw the man that had been lame leaping and walking. They saw also the supernatural event in the healing of this important man, and knowing only of the mythical gods, such as Jupiter and Mercury, of which Jupiter was the supreme god of the Greeks, and Mercury and Mercury the god of eloquence, they supposed that their gods had actually descended from heaven. "See thou do a little," said Paul, "and thou shalt know the likeness of men," and what a glorious truth we have, and one fully proved by John 1, 14; 1 John 1, 10; Heb 1, 14.

12. "And they called Barnabas Jupiter and Paul Mercury because he was the first speaker." Canon Faustus says that the heathen policy of the Romans was to secure as having come visited Phrygia by Jupiter, his father, and having been refused hospitality by all but two old penitents. Hence the simple people of Lystra supposed, from the miracle on the cripple, that Paul and Barnabas were these two gods again come to earth.

13. It was the supernatural power manifested through the apostles which caused these people to attempt to worship them.
We may not perhaps have the working of miracles of healing seen in us, for the Spirit divides his gifts to every one severally as He will (1 Cor. xii, 11), but we may all be filled with the Spirit and manifest in us the supernatural life of meekness and quietness, of patience and long suffering, with joyfulness, to the glory of God.

14. "They went their clothes and ran in among the people crying out, 'While we should earnestly desire the manifestation of Christ in us, we should also trouble him by our unbelief.' While the Lord alone must be exalted and no flesh glory in his presence. Most of us are too prone to enjoy a little honor and flattery, but it must not be tolerated. 'See thou do a little,' said Paul, 'and thou shalt know the likeness of men.' Must be our own work, and not the work of God.

15. "Turn from these vanities unto the living God." Assuring the people that they were but men of like passions with themselves, men such as themselves, and for the grace of God, they told them of the one true and living God, the Creator of all things. He has been greatly interested in making known to the world the way of salvation, and He will let them know it.

16. "Who in times past suffered all nations to walk in their own ways." While He draws us unto Himself and would have us "set apart for Himself," "kept for Jesus Christ," a special people, unto Him, yet if we insist on our own ways He will suffer us, to our eternal loss in many respects. While He is not willing that any should perish, but that all should repent and be saved, yet if people insist upon rejecting His love He will let them (Ps. lxxxv, 11-14; 1 Pet. iii, 9; 11 Cor. ii, 16, 17).

17. "Nevertheless He left not Him self without witness." His eternal power and Godhead are seen in the works of His hands and in His great goodness to all, so that all are without excuse (Rom. i, 20, 21). Paul would direct their minds to the goodness of God manifest in His daily mercies to all, for all may truly say: "It is of the Lord's mercies we are not consumed because His compassions fail not.
They are new every morning" (Lam. iii, 22, 23).

18. "And with these sayings scarce restrained they the people, that they had not done sacrifice unto them." They saw Paul and Barnabas, but not Jesus Christ. They saw the miracle, but not God. Only the opened eyes can see God, but He is willing to open the eyes of all who will turn to Him. Only the unveiled heart can see Him.
"Ye will not come unto me" (John v, 40).

19. "And there came thither certain Jews from Antioch and Iconium, who persuaded the people, and having stoned Paul drew him out of the city, supposing he had been dead." A persecuting devil goeth about seeking to destroy. If he cannot get the soul, he will do his best to kill the body; but this we are told not to fear (Math. x, 28), for the breaking of the body only sets the spirit free to be with Christ. Paul was to all intents dead, though in speaking of this experience he says twice, "Whether in the body or out of the body I cannot tell; God knoweth" (11 Cor. xii, 2, 3).

20. "Himself, as the disciples stood round about him, he rose up and came into the city, and the next day he departed with Barnabas to Derbe." I do not doubt that the vision described in 11 Cor.
xii, 1-4, was his actual experience while they were abiding his seemingly lifeless body out of Lystra, and by this experience he was fitted for greater and better things for his Lord and Master, concerning whom he could say, "I know I am, and whom I serve" (Acts xxvii, 23).

21. "And when they had preached the gospel to that city and had taught many, they returned again to Lystra and to Iconium and Antioch." The margin says they made many disciples. So wherever they went the souls were saved, God glorified and the devil made angry. He could encourage to go right back to Lystra where he had been stoned, and to the other cities, from where they had been driven out. But they knew that God was with them, and they feared nothing. What demon of self to turn his back upon his native Lystra when he was so near home and go the long journey over again to strengthen the disciples and exhorting them to continue in the faith, and that we must through much tribulation enter into the kingdom of God.
We can only be confirmed or established by believing God (11 Chron. xx, 20).

CHRISTIAN ENDEAVOR.

Topic For the Week beginning May 16.
Comment by Rev. S. H. Doyle.
Topic—"Some things worth living for."
1 John ii, 12-17.

Every one lives for something. More than that, every one in more or less measure attains to that for which he lives. What we live for is, therefore, very important to us all. Every one should live for something. Life, with its grand opportunities and its splendid possibilities, is not to be idled and wasted away. God has something for every one to do in life, and the chief end of our existence in life should be to discover what God has for us to do, and to do it.

Many people live for things that are not worth living for. Among these things are the world and the various things of the world. John warns us against loving the world and the things of the world. If we love them, we will live for them and waste life away—the most precious jewel that we possess.
Life is too sacred, too solemn, to be trifled away on the passing joys and honors of this world. The man who loves the world and lives for it will not love God nor live for Him. The world crushes God out of a man's heart and life. It bounds the horizon of his life by time and recognizes not the boundless eternity beyond the grave. Yet the world and the things of the world will pass away. They are temporal. Their joys are unsatisfying. Fill the cup of the world to the full and overflowing, drink it to its dregs, and still there will be an aching void in the human heart that will not be satisfied.

The one supreme thing worth living for in this life is to do the will of God.
"The chief end of man is to glorify God and to enjoy Him forever." The object of man's existence in this life was never more truthfully expressed than these words express it. We should love ourselves for God's sake, and Christ should live in us and reign over us. When we can say, with Paul, "It is no longer I that live, but Christ liveth in me," we shall have fulfilled the will of God toward us, and in doing so shall have made life worth living.

The man who lives for God will find many things in life worth living for.
The man who lives for God will make home brighter and happier; he will be a power for good in the church of Christ; he will have a beneficial influence upon the community in which he lives and an interest in the betterment of the whole human race, and in so doing he will be living for himself.

These are the things a true man lives for: God, home, church, state, humanity, not only in the light of time, but especially in the light of eternity. What things more worth living for than these?
